Dear Mr. Schlottfeldt,

I acknowledge receipt of your kind letter which reached me only to-day and thank you very much for having passed on my Invoice to the Rockefeller Foundation for payment, regret however to say that so far I did not receive the money.

As I noted from your letter due to various circumstances the consignment could not yet be cleared with the customs, but I hope that clearance can soon be effected without trouble and that the goods will turn out to your entire satisfaction.

Furthermore, I wish to point out to you that it is very important for me to receive soon your instructions regarding the balance-shipment, as all items are ready for dispatch. My manufacturers urge me to call off the consignments soon, or they have to dispose of the goods otherwise. As you will see, time is pressing and I would therefore very much appreciate to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

I was pleased to learn from your letter that you have once more been elected as Director of your University and I wish to express my sincere congratulations and best wishes for a pleasant and successful official-term.

Sincerely yours,
KARL KOLB
